 - An employee of Compass, Mohawk Medbuy Corporation (formerly called Plexxus) and Sienna working at the NYGH campus or any NYGH location
 - Volunteers registered with North York General Volunteer Services
2. The following are not eligible to participate in the lottery (buy tickets, win or claim any prizes conducted) throughout the year:
 - Hospital and Foundation Board of Governors
 - Persons involved in the direct management/execution of the raffle in the Foundation and Payroll Depts.
3. Fifty percent of all monies received for each biweekly draw will be awarded to the winner. The other fifty percent (net of expenses) will be granted to the Hospital in support of their priority equipment needs. Distribution of proceeds will require the approval of the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO).
4. A maximum of 4,500 tickets will be printed. There will be a maximum of 4,500 tickets /numbers played in the 26 bi-weekly draw, i.e. each player will use the same number per ticket for each draw.
5. The maximum prize value for a 50/50 draw is 50% of gross sales.
6. Actual prize awarded varies subject to the number of tickets sold, to a maximum of $9,000 per draw.
7. Draws will be conducted on the Friday pay day at the Foundation office or within the hospital.
8. Winners will be notified by phone and/or email no later than one working day proceeding the draw date by 4 p.m. by a Foundation staff member.

9. We will get the winner's consent to allow North York General Foundation to post their name on the Foundation website, Hospital intranet, and public broadcast of all video or photos taken of them for use in promotion of the raffle or other Foundation activities without compensation prior notice of publication.
10. Any unclaimed prizes will be held in the lottery trust account for a period not less than six months from the date of announcement before it can be granted to the Hospital in support of their priority equipment needs.
